a number of years ago douglas harper moved to northern new york to teach in a small college upon his arrival there his department chairman noted his eight year old saab and said you'll be meeting Willie Harper spent the next years establishing not only a working relationship but a friendship with Willie. In working knowledge he introduces us to Willie, a mechanic and jack of all trades with this engaging and insightful profile. Part biography, part ethnography, and part photo essay, Harper documents what Willie does and how he does it. Harper's dignified portrait captures a disappearing feature of modern life: the essential human factor in the world of work.
